Metamorphosis

An Evening to Benefit
St. Joseph Center

Honoring

Scott & Sunday Taylor
Hope Through Empowerment Award

and Wildwood School Community Service Award
The evening will honor and recognize individuals who have helped empower low-income and homeless men, women, and children to make positive changes in their lives. A client will also be honored and their success story highlighted.

Attendees of this benefit gala are:
An affluent consumer market of more than 500:
• Business Owners (65% are owners/executives in law, entertainment, and finance)
• Community Leaders (35% serve on local advisory boards)
• Benefactors and supporters of St. Joseph Center

The evening includes:
• Cocktail Reception
• Silent Auction
• Live Auction
• Live Music
• Dancing
• Opportunity Drawing for $1,000

Celebrating over 30 years of building brighter futures
For over 30 years, the volunteers and staff of St. Joseph Center have been nurturing the hopes and dreams of homeless and low-income individuals and families. More than 6,000 people each year are motivated, inspired, and empowered to build a better future for themselves, their children, and, ultimately, our community. By providing resources, referrals, and personal support, St. Joseph Center's programs create a sense of hope for a new beginning that changes the lives of those served. With the Center's help, countless men, women, and children have embarked upon the path to a brighter future.

Since 1976, St. Joseph Center has been “Planting Hope, Growing Lives” for low-income and homeless individuals and families. The Center is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community organization that assists people without regard for religious affiliation or lack thereof through comprehensive case management and integrated social service programs. Enjoying broad-based community support and a sponsored relationship with its founders, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, the Center endeavors daily to fulfill its mission to provide working poor families, as well as homeless men, women, and children of all ages, with the inner resources and tools to become productive, stable and self-supporting members of the community. St. Joseph Center administers services to approximately 6,000 individuals.

Brief Description of Principal Activities
Services are carried out at seven sites on the Westside of Los Angeles. St. Joseph Center’s programs are organized into three Continuums, designed to provide clients concentrated and coordinated access to programs, according to the nature of their needs:

I. Family Services
a. Family Center and Food Pantry serves working poor families with case management, groceries, emergency services, housing assistance, educational workshops, recreational activities, and after-school and mentoring activities for youth ages 6–17.

b. Infant Toddler Development Center cares for children ages 0–3, providing fun and meaningful activities aimed at developing emotional, physical, academic, and social skills.

c. Early Learning Center provides free bilingual childcare for homeless and low-income toddlers and pre-school children; parenting classes and case management for their parents.

d. Culinary Training Program trains unemployed adults in food service and life skills.

II. Homeless Services
a. Homeless Service Center connects homeless people to emergency services, such as showers, laundry, and mailboxes, in addition to providing long-term case management.

b. Affordable Housing Program assists family units in securing transitional or permanent housing.

c. Bread and Roses Café serves hot meals in a welcoming atmosphere of dignity.

d. Senior Services provides case management services to homeless and at-risk housed older adults, with emphasis on housing placement and eviction prevention services.

III. Money Management Services
a. Monetary Advisory Program provides homeless or at-risk mentally ill adults with case management, money management and help finding and maintaining housing.

b. Veterans Representative Payee Program provides homeless or at-risk veterans with case management, money management, and housing assistance.

In addition, St. Joseph Center maintains the Lincoln Boulevard Thrift Store, which offers used items for sale at affordable prices. The thrift store is open to the public, and also provides Center clients with vouchers for free clothing and household merchandise. 2545 Lincoln Boulevard, Venice, CA 90291 – 310-399-1713
